

SARA MARKS

Woodhouse Hall

Book Club Discussion Guide

- Woodhouse Hall is about life in the worst dorm on campus. Have you ever lived in a college dorm? What did you love or hate about it?
- It's clear to the reader that Eric is more interested in Amelia than Jenna. Have you ever misinterpreted someone's actions or misunderstood their desires?
- Adam let Jenna take care of his bulletin boards all year. She also decorates the dorm room door. How would you decorate a bulletin and board for your book club's dorm?
- If you were in Amelia's position after Eric's attack, how would you move forward? Would you have done anything differently?
- Amelia and her friends go on a road trip and discuss their favorite candies. Share your favorite candies or snacks!
- The battle about demolishing the dorm becomes a major problem on campus. Have you ever been involved in a neighborhood, town, or university battle like this?
- If Adam simply told Amelia he was in love with her, so many things could have been avoided. If Amelia had paid more attention to Adam she might have figured it out for herself. When has communication ever caused problems in your relationships?

There are a variety of related short stories for Woodhouse Hall. Do you want to read them? Let Sara know!

saramarks.net